

Lyn Manning – Making Every Detail Count!
Home Staging Specialist

Lyn Manning has a passion for providing clients the expert help and guidance they need when getting their home ready to sell. She knows sellers want to get “top dollar” and a “quick contract” so she uses every resource at her disposal to do just that.

Lyn’s professional experience includes: interior decorating, home staging specialist, corporate sales and marketing, and a teaching degree. She has over 12 years experience in staging and property enhancement, while partnering with the real estate industry. It comes as no surprise to anyone that knows Lyn, that her career path is designed to help others capitalize on their greatest material asset...their home!

Before moving to Wilmington, NC, Lyn resided in Annapolis, Md. and for 10 years was the Baltimore/ Washington areas’ most sought after home stager. First Impressions is the name she chose for her company because she knows a seller only gets one chance to make a good first impression, and with her help, they will get it right!
